CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LIV—JULY-DECEMBER, 1941

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAAE, West Point Meeting of the, 6
AASA, U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the, to Formulate a Program, 136
AAUP, Chicago Meeting of the, December 27–28, 583
Accrediting Association, A New, 492
ACE, Annual Report of the President of the, 134
ADAMS, J. E., Evidences of an Underlying Philosophy in Graduate Schools of Education, 167
Address at the Fourth Anniversary of the Dedication of Queens College, H. J. CARMAN, 601
Administrators Formulate Their Mid-Winter Program, 611
Adult Education and Defense, 389
Advances in Education in Peru, 211
AERA, Work of the Committee on Awards, and Its Report for 1941, W. S. MONROE, 501
AFT, in Detroit, 157; Should College Teachers Join the, G. WAKEHAM, 441
Age Limit, E. A. COOK, 565
All-or-None Theory of Education as Applied to American Life To-Day, V. E. ANDERSON, 426
"An All-Time Low," 325
ALTMAN, C., May a One-Year Foreign-Language Course Have Value?, 214
American, Schools in the Near and Far East Hard Hit by the War, 8; Education Week, November 9–15, 324; Defining the, Way, R. PULLIAM, 329; Schools in Transition, M. BERG, 388; Vocational Education Convention, 463; Fifty-Sixth Annual Meeting of the, Historical Association, 519; Professor in a Refugee Chinese College, R. SCOTT, 606
ANDERSON, V. E., All-or-None Theory of Education as Applied to American Life To-Day, 426
Annuities, New Illinois Plan for, 242
Another, Reply to Mr. Yoder, R. A. HUME, 282; Comment Relative to the Voltaire Article, H. E. B. SPEIGHT, 329
ANSBACHER, H. L., German War Evacuation of Children, 470
Antioch Conference on Progressive Action and Post-War Reconstruction, 20
An Appreciation, F. W. SMITH, 329
Army, Testing Trainees for the, 86
ARNOLD, W., Learning Begins at Home, 331
ARROWOOD, C. F., Education of American Plantation Slaves, 174
Association of American Colleges, Regional Conference of the, H. KAZANJIAN, 596
Association of American Universities at Lincoln, 409
At Least He Learned to Write, W. W. PARKER, 123
Aviation, Course for, Instruction at Kent State University, 137
Awards, Pi Lambda Theta Research, 87; The 1941–42, of Delta Kappa Gamma, 437; Work of the Committee on, AERA, and Its Report for 1941, W. S. MONROE, 501

BAGLEY, W. C., and W. A. JESSUP, Good News for the Friends of SCHOOL AND SOCIETY, 389
BAKER, M. C., College Girl in the Defense Program, 385
BARHAM, T. C., JR., Peace—The Great Delusion, 509
Barnard College Reading Tests, 8
Battle of the Text-Books, W. D. LEWIS, 229
BENJAMIN, H., Paleolithic Defense, 290
BERG, M. J., American Schools in Transition, 388
BIGELOW, B. M., Jottings from a Traveler's Scrapbook, 293
BIGELOW, M. A., Human-Relations Education, 499
Bilingualism, Mexican Minister of Education Urges, for the Americas, 211
Bill of Rights, Contribution of Religion to the, H. C. CROUCH, 537
BLAU, R. D., and I. LORGE, Education of a Genius, 573
Blitzkrieg, Effect of the, on French in Our Schools, R. TOWNE, 579
BODE, B. H., "Adventures in the Reconstruction of Education," 444
BOND, E. A., Yale-Harvard Freshmen Speed-Reading Experiment, 107
Book, National, Drive for Armed Forces, 519
Brave Word from England, 138
Brazil, American Cultural and Economic Influences Are Spreading in, 464
BRICKER, H., Implementing Democracy, 486
BRICKMAN, W. W., Clio and Terpsichore; or, Operas as Educational Sources, 277; Town and Gown—Past and Present, 525
Britain Educates Malaya, H. H. PETERSON, 568
British Schools Will Emphasize American History, 103
BUTTERFIELD, V. L., Problem of the Small Liberal College, 575

Canada, To the Citizens of, and the United States, 22
Canadian, Project in Progressive Education, 271; Salaries of, Rural-School Teachers, 584
Canal Zone, Educational Developments in the, 438
CARMAN, H. J., Address at the Fourth Anniversary of the Dedication of Queens College, 601
CARR, W. L., Some Criteria for Evaluating Activities in a Latin Classroom, 65
CARTER, T. M., J. Abner Peddiwell Speaks Again, 471
CCC, Educational Policies Commission on the Continuance of the, and the NYA, 323
Centennial Year in the History of Education, 1942 as a, W. C. EELLS, 622
Central Association of Colleges—A New Accrediting Association, 492
Challenge to the College Woman, S. P. DUKE, 425
CHAMBERS, M. M., Doctoral Dissertations on Legal Aspects of Education, 422
CHAMPLIN, C. D., Democracy—Another Definition, 220
Changes in College Courses to Meet the Present Crisis, 53
Chemistry, Course in Practical, for High-School Students, W. P. EVEROTE, 447
China: American Professor in a Refugee Chinese College, R. SCOTT, 606

"Circulus Vitiosus," E. O. SISSON, 125
Citizenship, Education for Aliens, 117; Macalester College Focuses Attention on, 325
Civilian, Regarding the, Morale Service of the Office of Education, 434
CLELAND, J. S., Shoemakers' Children, 603
Clio and Terpsichore; or, Operas as Educational Sources, W. W. BRICKMAN, 277
Coal vs. Schooling: A Clash in Priorities, 495
COE, G. A., Teaching the Truth about Private Profits, 343
COFFEY, W. C., Can We Keep Our Cake and Eat It Too?—Apropos of a University's Defense Responsibilities, 397
College, Girl in the Defense Program, M. C. BAKER, 385; Proposal for a, Entrance Preview, C. E. SEASHORE, 414; Problem of the Small Liberal, V. L. BUTTERFIELD, 575
Colleges—"What's in a Name?", 378
Comics, How Much of a Menace Are the, 436
Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, President Gideonse Challenges the, 348
Community Living in the Shelters of London, 159
CONANT, J. B., How Can a Democratic Nation Fight a War and Still Stay Free?, 313
Concept of God, E. B. STEVENS, 413
Conservation Information in the Schools, P. A. DAVIES, 14
Constitution Day, 73
COOK, E. A., Age Limit, 565
Cornell University, Foreign-Language Study Flourishes at, 464
Costa Rica, Education in: Impressions of an American Teacher, N. LOWENSTEIN, 590
Course in Practical Chemistry for High-School Students, W. P. EVEROTE, 447
CRAWFORD, C. C., Three Books for the Hard of Hearing, 357
CRESSWELL, D. M., School Superintendents Urge an All-Out Defense Training Program, 126
CROSS, A. J. F., If You Call This "Soft Pedagogy," 218
CROUCH, H. C., Contribution of Religion to the Bill of Rights, 537
Crowning Event of Fordham University's Centenary Celebration, 270
Cultural Value of 100 Representative American Magazines, W. A. KERR and H. H. REMMERS, 476
CUROE, P. R. V., and W. G. WIXTED, How Well Do College Seniors Write?, 505
Curriculum: Changes in College Courses to Meet the Present Crisis, 53; Epidemic of New Courses of Study, 349

Daniel Come to Judgment, 116
DAVIES, P. A., Conservation Information in the Schools, 14
DAWSON, E., Henry Johnson on the Teaching of History, 193
DEARBORN, N. H., Reply to President Gideonse's Charges, 417
Defense, Advanced Mathematics and the Problem of, 5; "Keep 'Em Flying," 85; Testing Trainees for the Army, 86; Attitude of Youth toward National, 100; In the Interest of, 101; Permanent Educational Preparedness: A Rejoinder, L. W. Rapeer, 125; School Superintendents Urge an All-Out, Training Program, D. M. CRESSWELL, 126; Higher Education and National, C. S. MARSH, 145; Toward a Coordination of the Educational Phases of, 184; Liberty Fleet Day, 209; Paleolithic, H. BENJAMIN, 290; "Education Is the Best, of the Republic," A. G. MELVIN, 354; College Girl in the, Program, M. C. BAKER, 385; Adult Education and, 389; Can We Keep Our Cake and Eat It Too?—Apropos of a University's, Responsibilities, W. C. COFFEY, 397; National, at Kent State University, 410; Needs and Other Needs for Persons Trained in Mathematics, W. L. HART, 421; Placing Responsibility for the Training of National-, Personnel, (Anon.), 457; Coal vs. Schooling: A Clash in Priorities, 495; National Book Drive for Armed Forces, 519
Defining the "American Way," R. PULLIAM, 329
Degree, Doctor's, as a Title, H. ELIAS, 277
Degrees, Honorary, Conferred in 1941, 21; University of Chicago Takes an Unprecedented Step in Announcing Candidates for Honorary, 72; Professional, in Education at the University of Illinois, 520
Delta Kappa Gamma, The 1941–42 Awards of, 437
Democracy,—Another Definition, C. D. CHAMPLIN, 220; Education and the World Crisis, L. A. PECHSTEIN, 306
DE WOLF, L. H., What Shall We Say about God?, 279; "SCHOOL AND SOCIETY Is Really Read," 418
"DIABOLI, A.," Still another Voltaire(?) Letter, 595
DICKENSON, H. F., Sequel to Patterning Examination Responses in Lieu of Sectioning, 449
DIMMETT, W. S., Reply to "Fishing Guys," 11
Do, Brains and Character Go Together?, A. E. WIGGAM, 261; Superior College Students Prepare for Public-School Teaching?, 298
Doctoral Dissertations on Legal Aspects of Education, M. M. CHAMBERS, 422
Does Military Training Have Broader Educational Values?, W. I. PAINTER, 252
Draft, Problem Facing the Teaching Profession Because of the, G. E. SCHLESSER, 303; Physical and Educational Deficiencies among Those in the, 323
DRAKE, C. A., Short Method for Analyzing Examination Questions, 392
Drexel Institute of Technology, Fiftieth Anniversary of, 298
DUKE, S. P., Challenge to the College Woman, 425

ECKHARDT, C. C., Significance of the Present World Revolution, 33
Edgar W. Knight to Give the 1942 Kappa Delta Pi Lecture, 493
Education, for College or for Life?, G. WAKEHAM, 12; Freedom to Teach: The Way to Realize New Purposes in, G. R. JOHNSON, 17; New, Fellowship at Ann Arbor, 39; Industry and Institutions of Higher, 40; Historic Sense in, W. C. REUDIGER, 46; "for Life," G. WAKEHAM, 47; at St. John's College, 55; A Blow to, in Georgia, 71; Hundred Years of Public, in the Virgin Islands, 88; Expansion of Engineering, in the Present Emergency, 100; Citizenship, for Aliens, 117; Twenty Years on—Or, the Next Two Decades in Private Secondary, R. M. GUMMERE, 129; Progress in Engineering, 158; Evidences of an Underlying Philosophy in Graduate Schools of, J. E. ADAMS, 167; of American Plantation Slaves, C. F. ARROWOOD, 174; New Plans for, under the Vichy Régime, 187; the "Roll" of, E. W. KNIGHT, 190; and Group Prejudices, E. FULLER, 192; Advances in, in Peru, 211; Voltaire

on, J. H. HILDEBRAND, 232; Japan Takes a Leaf out of Nazi, 300; Fraternities and Honorary Societies in, J. D. TELLER, 317; American, Week, November 9–15, 324; Builder of Human Relations, P. KLAPPER, 341; Roosevelt Fellowships in, 350; "Is the Best Defense of the Republic," A. G. MELVIN, 354; Interchangeable Parts in, I. L. KANDEL, 385; Adult, and Defense, 389; Doctoral Dissertations on Legal Aspects of, M. M. CHAMBERS, 422; All-or-None Theory of, as Applied to American Life To-Day, V. E. ANDERSON, 426; Regarding the Civilian Morale Service of the Office of, 434; Human-Relations, M. A. BIGELOW, 499; of a Genius, I. LORGE and R. D. BLAU, 573; Can, Matter?, G. E. HILL, 587; Indoctrination and Realities, W. C. RUEDIGER, 594; Further Plans for a War-Time "Speeding Up" of Higher, 611; 1942 as a Centennial Year in the History of, W. C. EELLS, 622

Educational, A Comprehensive, Program for To-Day and To-Morrow, 7; Classes for Fort Jackson Soldiers, J. A. MULCAHY, 13; Use of Motion Pictures Grows Apace, 41; Looking toward, Reconstruction after the War, 70; Another, Centennial, 119; Meeting the, Needs of the Netherlands East Indies, 243; Does Military Training Have Broader, Values?, W. I. PAINTER, 252; Physical and, Deficiencies among Those Subject to the Draft, 323; Policies Commission on the Continuance of the CCC and the NYA, 323; Foreign Language as an, Problem, E. O. SISSON, 369; Louisiana, Survey, 380; Developments in the Canal Zone, 438; Institutions Adjust Themselves to the War, 582

EELLS, W. C., 1942 as a Centennial Year in the History of Education, 622

Effect of the Blitzkrieg on French in Our Schools, R. TOWNE, 579

ELIAS, H., Doctor's Degree as a Title, 277

Employment, NYA Reports on, of Youth, 518

Engineering, Progress in, Education, 158

England, Brave Word from, 138

English, Thomas J. Gates on the Teaching of, 380

Enrolment, Forecast for Collegiate, for 1941–42, R. WALTERS, 143; With Some Exceptions, Has Decreased in Junior Colleges, 378

Epidemic of New Courses of Study, 349

Ethics, Politics and Education, R. M. HUTCHINS, 257

Evaluation of the Nature-Nurture Controversy, P. WITTY, 151

EVEROTE, W. P., Course in Practical Chemistry for High-School Students, 447

Evidences of an Underlying Philosophy in Graduate Schools of Education, J. E. ADAMS, 167

Examination, Graduate Record, 241; Short Method for Analyzing, Questions, C. A. DRAKE, 392; Meeting of the College Entrance, Board, G. W. MULLINS, 473; A Report on the, of Teachers for Tuberculosis, 494

Examinations, The 1941 Administration of the National Teacher, D. G. RYANS, 361

"Fair Philosophies That Lift the Fancy," 54

Far-Flung Movement for the Study of the Negro, 462

FARLEY, B., NEA at Boston, 27; National Council for the Social Studies at Indianapolis, 530

Fellowships, Roosevelt, in Education, 350

Financing, Problems of, an Endowed University in the Year, 1941–42, 408

Fisk University, Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of, 136

FLACCUS, Q. H., H., On Retirement, 276

FLANAGAN, J. C., Preliminary Study of the Validity of the 1940 Edition of the National Teacher Examinations, 59

FOLEY, L., Word-Education and the Word, Education, 113

Fordham University's, Crowning Event of, Centenary Celebration, 270

Forecast of Collegiate Enrolment for 1941–42, R. WALTERS, 143

Foreign Language as an Educational Problem, E. O. SISSON, 369

FOX, J. H., Newer Instructional Practices, 49

Francis W. Parker Society, A. G. MELVIN, 474

Frank N. Freeman on Projects vs. the Systematic Study of Subjects, 324

Fraternities and Honorary Societies in Education, J. D. TELLER, 317

Freedom, to Teach: The Way to Realize New Purposes in Education, G. R. JOHNSON, 17; or Chaos?—A Reply to Mr. Johnson's "Freedom to Teach," R. O. HUGHES, 251

FREUND, C. J., They Are Themselves the Best Investment, 589

FULLER, E., Education and Group Prejudices, 192

Fundamentals of the IQ Controversy: A Reply to Professor Witty, B. R. SIMPSON, 511

FURBAY, J. H., Havana Conference Lays Plans for Cultural Cooperation, 623

Further Plans for a War-Time "Speeding Up" of Higher Education, 611

FYAN, L. D., Michigan Library Association, 223

GALBRAITH, A., and G. JONES, Interpretation of Standardized Tests, 224

George S. Counts on Technology as the Primary Cause of the War, 347

George Williams College, Field Work Program of, 210

Georgia, Blow to Education in, 71; Southern Association Drops Ten, State Colleges, 560

German, Shortage of Teachers in the, Reich, 410; War Evacuation of Children, H. L. ANSBACHER, 470

Gideonse, President, Challenges the Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, 348

God, What Shall We Tell Our Children about, D. T. YODER, 97; What Shall We Say about, L. H. DE WOLF, 279; Another Reply to Mr. Yoder, R. A. HUME, 282; Concept of, E. B. STEVENS, 413; What To Tell Our Children about, J. E. WISE, S.J., 467

"Gods of Copybook Headings," E. W. KNIGHT, 387

Graduate Record Examination, 241

GRAHAM, P. H., Student Who "Found Himself" in Mathematics, 249

Great Challenge Accepted, 297

Guidance, Organizing for, F. H. KIRKPATRICK, 356; Three Phases of, in the High School, R. STRANG, 357

GUMMERE, R. M., Twenty Years on; Or, the Next Two Decades in Private Secondary Education, 129

"Haben Sie gut geschlafen . . . ?", W. M. KOTSCHNIG, 616

HALL, D., Maturity for Freshmen?, 247

HAMILTON, R. W., Some Short-Short Comments, 524

Happy though Historical: The Modern Historian in a Time of Trouble, R. H. HEINDEL, 484

HARE, H. F., Voltaire—Seer or Soothsayer?, 444
HART, W. L., Defense Needs and Other Needs for Persons Trained in Mathematics, 421
Harvard's National Scholarships Six Years after Their Inception, 435
Havana Conference Lays Plans for Cultural Cooperation, J. H. FURBAY, 623
Health, Report on the Examination of Teachers for Tuberculosis, 494
HEINDEL, R. H., Happy though Historical: The Modern Historian in a Time of Trouble, 484
Hemispherical Unity, Rôle of Secondary Schools in Achieving, 185
HICKS, C. R., Japan and Nazi Education, 471
High-School College Conferences in Northeastern Ohio, M. F. WICKE, 570
Higher Education and National Defense, C. S. MARSH, 145
HILDEBRAND, J. H., Voltaire on Education, 232
HILL, G. E., Can Education Matter?, 587
HILLWAY, T., Junior College as a Democratic Institution, 124
Historic Sense in Education, W. C. RUEDIGER, 46
History, British Schools Will Emphasize American, 103
Honors, NYA Students and College, 186
HORNE, H. H., Schoenehen's "The Activity School," 419
Housing, Positions in the, Field Open, 39
How, Can a Democratic Nation Fight a War and Still Stay Free?, J. B. CONANT, 313; Much of a Menace Are the Comics?, 436; Well Do College Seniors Write?, W. G. WIXTED and P. R. V. CUROE, 505
HUGGETT, A. J., Should Teachers Ignore the Present Crisis?, 470
HUGHES, R. O., Freedom or Chaos?—A Reply to Mr. Johnson's "Freedom to Teach," 251
Human-Relations Education, M. A. BIGELOW, 499
HUME, R. A., Another Reply to Mr. Yoder, 282
Hundred Years of Public Education in the Virgin Islands, 88
HUTCHINS, R. M., Ethics, Politics and Education, 257

If You Call This "Soft Pedagogy," A. J. F. CROSS, 218
Illinois, Professional Degrees in Education at the University of, 520
Implementing Democracy, H. BRICKER, 486
Indian, Combined Effort to Solve the, Problem, 584
Industry and Institutions of Higher Education, 40
Inner Working of the NSSE, G. M. WHIPPLE, 163
Inspiration of Crisis, G. WAKEHAM, 619
Inter-American, Speeding, Solidarity, 240
Interchangeable Parts in Education, I. L. KANDEL, 385
Interpretation of Standardized Tests, G. JONES and A. GALBRAITH, 224
IQ, Fundamentals of the, Controversy: A Reply to Professor Witty, B. R. SIMPSON, 511
Is Logical Organization Unpsychological?, P. A. KNOWLTON, 523

J. Abner Peddiwell Speaks Again, T. M. CARTER, 471
JACKSON, S. L., School and Society in the 1830's, 406
Japan, Takes a Leaf Out of Nazi Education, 300; and Nazi Education, C. R. HICKS, 471
JESSUP, W. A., and W. C. BAGLEY, Good News for the Friends of SCHOOL AND SOCIETY, 389
JOHNSON, G. R., Freedom to Teach: The Way to Realize New Purposes in Education, 17
JONES, E. S., Troubles of the Modern Parent, 375
JONES, G., and A. GALBRAITH, Interpretation of Standardized Tests, 224
Jottings from a Traveler's Scrapbook, B. M. BIGELOW, 293
Junior College as a Democratic Institution, T. HILLWAY, 124
Junior Colleges, With Some Exceptions, Enrolment Has Decreased In, 378

KANDEL, I. L., New Deferred Values, 12; Interchangeable Parts in Education, 385
Kappa Delta Pi, Edgar W. Knight to Give the 1942, Lecture, 493
"Keep 'Em Flying," 85
KAZANJIAN, H., Regional Conference of the Association of American Colleges, 596
KEITER, H., Orientation Crisis, 1
KENT, G., Mill Town Miracle, 82
Kent State University, Course for Aviation Instruction at, 137; National Defense at, 410
Kenyon College Conference on Post-War Educational Reconstruction, 518
Keppel's, Frederick P., Final Report as President, Carnegie Corporation, 560
KERR, W. A., and H. H. REMMERS, Cultural Value of 100 Representative American Magazines, 476
KILPATRICK, W. H., Philosophy of the New Education, 481
KIRKPATRICK, F. H., Organizing for Guidance, 356
KLAPPER, P., Education, Builder of Human Relations, 341
KNIGHT, E. W., The "Roll" of Education, 190; Progress and Perspective, 201; "Gods of Copybook Headings," 387
Knowledge Is Powerless!, H. S. TUTTLE, 315
KNOWLTON, P. A., Is Logical Organization Unpsychological?, 523
KOTSCHNIG, W. M., "Haben Sie gut geschlafen . . . ?", 616

Language, May a One-Year Foreign-, Course Have Value, C. ALTMAN, 214; More Light on the Foreign-, Requirement for the Doctorate, W. M. MURPHY, 220; Foreign, as an Educational Problem, E. O. SISSON, 369; Vigorous Protest against a "General, Course," 463; Foreign-, Study Flourishes at Cornell University, 464
Latin America, University Reform Movement in, 613
LAWSON, S., Stay Tuned to This Station, 193
Learning Begins at Home, W. ARNOLD, 331
LEDERER, M., A Nazi Author Discovers America, 141
Lehigh University's Seventy-Fifth Anniversary, 269
LEWIS, W. D., Battle of the Text-Books, 229
Liberal-Arts College in the Present Emergency, G. E. SNAVELY, 174
Liberty Fleet Day, 209
Literature, The Study of Patriotic, Urged, 520
London, Community Living in the Shelters of, 159
Looking toward Educational Reconstruction after the War, 70
LORGE, I., and R. D. BLAU, Education of a Genius, 573
Louisiana Educational Survey, 380

Lowell Mason: America's Pioneer in Music Education, A. L. RICH, 265
LOWENSTEIN, N., Education in Costa Rica: Impressions of an American Teacher, 590

Macalester College Focuses Attention on Citizenship, 325
Malaya, Britain Educates, H. H. PETERSON, 568
MARSH, C. S., Higher Education and National Defense, 145
Mathematics, Advanced, and the Problem of Defense, 5; Student Who "Found Himself" in, P. H. GRAHAM, 249; Defense Needs and Other Needs for Persons Trained in, W. L. HART, 421
Maturity for Freshmen?, D. HALL, 247
May a One-Year Foreign-Language Course Have Value?, C. ALTMAN, 214
MAYO, L. W., Many Trained Social Workers Needed Now—More When Peace Comes, 567
Measuring the Freshman Orientation Course, E. NELSON, 598
Meeting, the Educational Needs of the Netherlands East Indies, 243; of the College Entrance Examination Board, G. W. MULLINS, 473
MELVIN, A. G., "Education Is the Best Defense of the Republic," 354; Francis W. Parker Society, 474
"Mere Literacy?", B. Q. MORGAN, 355
Methodology in the Study of Propaganda and Attitudes Relating to War, R. STRANG, 334
Methods, Types or Techniques of Educational Research?, F. L. WHITNEY, 282
Mexican Minister of Education Urges Bilingualism for the Americas, 211
Miami University, Provision at, for the Forgotten Youth, 102
Michigan Library Association, L. D. FYAN, 223
Midwest Conference of Deans of Arts and Sciences, 210
Military, Does, Training Have Broader Educational Values?, W. I. PAINTER, 252
Mill Town Miracle, G. KENT, 82
Mills College Looks beyond the War in Its Ninetieth Year, 379
Minnesota, University of: Can We Keep Our Cake and Eat It Too?—Apropos of a University's Defense Responsibilities, W. C. COFFEY, 397
MONROE, W. S., Work of the Committee on Awards, AERA, and Its Report for 1941, 501
More Light on the Foreign-Language Requirement for the Doctorate, W. M. MURPHY, 220
MORGAN, B. Q., "Mere Literacy?," 355
Motion Pictures, Educational Use of, Grows, Apace, 41
MULCAHY, J. A., Educational Classes for Fort Jackson Soldiers, 13
MULFORD, H. B., Which Way American Public-School Government?, 330
MULLINS, G. W., Meeting of the College Entrance Examination Board, 473; Recent Publications of the College Entrance Examination Board, 597
MURPHY, W. M., More Light on the Foreign-Language Requirement for the Doctorate, 220
Music Education, Lowell Mason: America's Pioneer in, A. L. RICH, 265

National Emergency: Significance of the Present World Revolution, C. C. ECKHARDT, 33; Changes in College Courses to Meet the Present Crisis, 53; Expansion of Engineering Education in the Present Emergency, 100; Liberal-Arts College in the Present Emergency, G. E. SNAVELY, 174; Democracy, Education and the World Crisis, L. A. PECHSTEIN, 306; How Can a Democratic Nation Fight a War and Still Stay Free?, J. B. CONANT, 313; Should Teachers Ignore the Present Crisis?, A. J. HUGGETT, 470
National Forum, Proposals Emerging from the, at Stephens College, 583
Nature-Nurture, Evaluation of the, Controversy, P. WITTY, 151; Psychiatrist on the, Controversy, 299
Nazi, Author Discovers America, M. LEDERER, 141; Japan Takes a Leaf Out of, Education, 300; Japan and, Education, C. R. HICKS, 471
NCSS at Indianapolis, B. FARLEY, 530
NCTE, Thirty-First Annual Meeting of the, 269
NEA at Boston, B. FARLEY, 27
Nebraska, Superintendent of Schools in, C. W. SCOTT and O. G. RUFF, 309
Negro, Position of, Educators on Two Important Questions, 268; Great Challenge Accepted, 297; Far-Flung Movement for the Study of the, 462
NELSON, E., Measuring the Freshman Orientation Course, 598
Netherlands East Indies, Meeting the Educational Needs of the, 243
New, Deferred Values, I. L. KANDEL, 12; Education Fellowship at Ann Arbor, 39; Organization for the Study of Food, Clothing and Shelter, 73; Illinois Plan for Annuities, 242; York City's Investigation of the "Activity Program," 409; University Center in the South, 582
Newer Instructional Practices, J. H. FOX, 49
NSSE, Inner Working of the, G. M. WHIPPLE, 163; Will Discuss Philosophies and Psychologies of Education, 612
Nursery Schools, Plans for the Biennial Conference on, 186
NYA, Students and College Honors, 186; Educational Policies Commission on the Continuance of the CCC and the, 323; Reports on Employment of Youth, 518

Odi et Amo, E. OWEN, 253
Ohio, Wesleyan University's Centennial, 242; High-School-College Conferences in Northeastern, M. F. WICKE, 570
On Retirement, Q. H. FLACCUS, II, 276
Opinions, Reed Poll of Children's, 118
Orientation Crisis, H. KEITER, 1
OWEN, E., Odi et Amo, 253

PAINTER, W. I., Does Military Training Have Broader Educational Values?, 252
Paleolithic Defense, H. BENJAMIN, 290
PARKER, W. W., At Least He Learned to Write, 123
Patriotic Literature, The Study of, Urged, 520
Peace—The Great Delusion, T. C. BARHAM, JR., 509; The Great Delusion, 559
PECHSTEIN, L. A., Democracy, Education and the World Crisis, 306
Permanent Educational Preparedness: A Rejoinder, L. W. RAPEER, 125
Peru, Advances in Education in, 211
PETERSON, H. H., Britain Educates Malaya, 568
Phi Delta Kappa, Nineteenth National Council of, December 28–31, 561
Philosophies, Fair, That Lift the Fancy, 54
Philosophy of the New Education, W. H. KILPATRICK, 481
Physical and Educational Deficiencies among Those Subject to the Draft, 323

Pi Lambda Theta, Research Awards, 87; Does Not Draw a Color Line, M. V. SEAGOE, 418
Placing Responsibility for the Training of National-Defense Personnel, (Anon.), 457
Plans for the Biennial Conference on Nursery Schools, 186
Positions in the Housing Field Open, 39
Post-War: Antioch Conference on Progressive Action and, Reconstruction, 20; Looking toward Educational Reconstruction after the War, 70; Mills College Looks beyond the War in Its Ninetieth Year, 379; Kenyon College Conference on, Educational Reconstruction, 518; Many Trained Social Workers Needed Now—More When Peace Comes, L. W. MAYO, 567
Preliminary Study of the Validity of the 1940 Edition of the National Teacher Examinations, J. C. FLANAGAN, 59
President Roosevelt Emphasizes the Need of College Training, 134
Problem, Facing the Teaching Profession Because of the Draft, G. E. SCHLESSER, 303; of the Small Liberal College, V. L. BUTTERFIELD, 575
Problems of Financing an Endowed University in the Year, 1941–42, 408
Program, Timely, for Undergraduates, 54; Field-Work, of George Williams College, 210; New York City's Investigation of the "Aetivity," 409
Progress and Perspective, E. W. KNIGHT, 201
Progressive Education, Canadian Project in, 271
Projects, Frank N. Freeman on, vs. the Systematic Study of Subjects, 324
Proposal for a College-Entrance Preview, C. E. SEASHORE, 414
Psychiatrist on the Nature-Nurture Controversy, 299
Public-School, Which Way American, Government?, H. B. MULFORD, 330
PULLIAM, R., Defining the "American Way," 329

Queens College, Address at the Fourth Anniversary of the Dedication of, H. J. CARMAN, 601

Radio, High Uses of, 23; Women and, 74; Stay Tuned to This Station, S. LAWSON, 193; Great Challenge Accepted, 297; Implementing Democracy, H. BRICKER, 486
RAPEER, L. W., Permanent Educational Preparedness: A Rejoinder, 125
Reading, Barnard College, Tests, 8; Yale-Harvard Freshmen Speed-, Experiment, E. A. BOND, 107
Recent Publications of the College Entrance Examination Board, G. W. MULLINS, 597
Recommendations of the Committee on Rural Education, 87
REED, H. B., Five Books on General Psychology; 526; Three Books on Educational Psychology, 619
Reed Poll of Children's Opinions, 118
Regional Conference of the Association of American Colleges, H. KAZANJIAN, 596
REMMERS, H. H., A Correction, 596
REMMERS, H. H., and W. A. KERR, Cultural Value of 100 Representative American Magazines, 476
Reply, to "Fishing Guys," W. S. DIMMETT, 11; to President Gideonse's Charges, N. H. DEARBORN, 417; to Dr. Sisson, E. H. ZEYDEL, 473
Residential Distribution of Students of Three Women's Colleges, A. M. STOWE, 571
Retesting Freshman English, J. SOLTERER, 305
RICH, A. L., Lowell Mason: America's Pioneer in Music Education, 265
Rôle of Secondary Schools in Achieving Hemispherie Unity, 185
"Roll" of Education, E. W. KNIGHT, 190
ROOS, C. A., "They Don't Know How to Study," 78
Roosevelt Fellowships in Education, 350
RUEDIGER, W. C., Historic Sense in Education, 46; Voltaire?—Or Montaigne?, 329; Education, Indoctrination and Realities, 594
RUFF, O. C., and C. W. SCOTT, Superintendent of Schools in Nebraska, 309
Rural Education, Recommendations of the Committee on, 87
Rutgers University, 1766–1941, 101
RYANS, D. G., The 1941 Administration of the National Teacher Examinations, 361

Salaries of Canadian Rural-School Teachers, 584
SCHEIDEMANN, N. V., New Tests for Infants, 475
SCHLESSER, G. E., Problem Facing the Teaching Profession because of the Draft, 303
Scholarships, Harvard's National, Six Years after Their Inception, 435
SCHOOL AND SOCIETY, Good News for the Friends of, W. A. JESSUP and W. C. BAGLEY, 389; "Is Really Read," L. H. DE WOLF, 418; A Correction, 474; A Correction, H. H. REMMERS, 596
School Superintendents Urge an All-Out Defense Training Program, D. M. CRESSWELL, 126
Schools, American, in the Near and Far East Hard Hit by the War, 8; Conservation Information in the, P. A. DAVIES, 14; British, Will Emphasize American History, 103
Scores on National Committee Teacher Examinations, 1940 and 1941, B. D. WOOD, 625
SCOTT, C. W., and O. G. RUFF, Superintendent of Schools in Nebraska, 309
SCOTT, R., American Professor in a Refugee Chinese College, 606
SEAGOE, M. V., Pi Lambda Theta Does Not Draw a Color Line, 418
SEASHORE, C. E., Proposal for a College-Entrance Preview, 414
Sequel to Patterning Examination Responses in Lieu of Sectioning, H. F. DICKENSON, 449
Sex Differences in the Ability to Write, J. M. STALNAKER, 532
Shoemakers' Children, J. S. CLELAND, 603
Short Method for Analyzing Examination Questions, G. A. DRAKE, 392
Should College Teachers Join the AFT?, G. WAKEHAM, 441
Significance of the Present World Revolution, C. C. ECKHARDT, 33
SIMPSON, B. R., Fundamentals of the IQ Controversy: A Reply to Professor Witty, 511
SISSON, E. D., Vocational Choices of Students from Cities, Towns and Farms, 94
SISSON, E. O., "Circulus Vitiosus," 125; Foreign Language as an Educational Problem, 369
SMITH, F. W., An Appreciation, 329
SNAVELY, G. E., Liberal-Arts College in the Present Emergeney, 174
SNEDDEN, D., Learnings: Vast Quantities Proposed, 92; Wide Explorations, 420
Social Sciences, Research in the, 493
Social Studies, Teachers of the, to Meet in Indianapolis, 437; National Council for, at Indianapolis, B. FARLEY, 530

Social Workers, Many Trained, Needed Now—More When Peace Comes, L. W. MAYO, 567
Soldiers, Educational Classes for Fort Jackson, J. A. MULCAHY, 13
SOLTERER, J., Retesting Freshman English, 305
Some, Criteria for Evaluating Activities in a Latin Classroom, W. L. CARR, 65; Short-Short Comments, R. W. HAMILTON, 524
South, New University Center in the, 582
Southern Association Drops Ten Georgia State Colleges, 560
Speeding Inter-American Solidarity, 240
SPEIGHT, H. E. B., Another Comment Relative to the Voltaire Article, 329
SPROUL, R. G., Stanford Fiftieth Anniversary, 285
STALNAKER, J. M., Sex Differences in the Ability to Write, 532
Stanford Fiftieth Anniversary, R. G. SPROUL, 285
Stanford University Completes Its Cycle of Half a Century, 157
Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges, 1941, R. WALTERS, 539
Stay Tuned to This Station, S. LAWSON, 193
Stephens College, Proposals Emerging from the National Forum at, 583
STEVENS, E. B., Concept of God, 413
St. John's College, Education at, 55
STOWE, A. M., Residential Distribution of Students of Three Women's Colleges, 571
STRANG, R., Methodology in the Study of Propaganda and Attitudes Relating to War, 334; Three Phases of Guidance in the High School, 357
Student Who "Found Himself" in Mathematics, P. H. GRAHAM, 249
Students, For, Not Planning to Enter College, 41; University of Oklahoma Provides for Its Latin-American, 119
Survey, Louisiana Educational, 380

Teacher, Preliminary Study of the Validity of the 1940 Edition of the National, Examinations, J. C. FLANAGAN, 59; Education: "An All-Time Low," 325; The 1941 Administration of the National, Examinations, D. G. RYANS, 361; Scores on National Committee, Examinations, 1940 and 1941, B. D. WOOD, 625
Teacher Shortage,—An Urgent Call for Help, 56; Already in Sight, 381; in the German Reich, 410; Impending Shortage of Qualified Teachers, 492
Teachers of the Social Studies to Meet in Indianapolis, 437
Teaching, Do Superior College Students Prepare for Public-School?, 298; Problem Facing the, Profession Because of the Draft, G. E. SCHLESSER, 303; the Truth about Private Profits, G. A. COE, 343; Thomas J. Gates on the, of English, 380
Technical Education and the Liberal Arts: A Plan for Their Coordination, W. P. TOLLEY, 403
Technology, George S. Counts on, as the Primary Cause of the War, 347
TELLER, J. D., Fraternities and Honorary Societies in Education, 317
Testing Trainees for the Army, 86
Tests, Barnard College Reading, 8; Interpretation of Standardized, G. JONES and A. GALBRAITH, 224
Text-Books, Battle of the, W. D. LEWIS, 229
"They, Don't Know How to Study," C. A. ROOS, 78; Are Themselves the Best Investment, C. J. FREUND, 589
This, Too, Will Pass, A. M. WITHERS, 191
Thomas J. Gates on the Teaching of English, 380
Three Phases of Guidance in the High School, R. STRANG, 357
The Title, "Doctor," in a Troubled World, A. M. WITHERS, 524
TOLLEY, W. P., Technical Education and the Liberal Arts: A Plan for Their Coordination, 403
Toward a Coordination of the Educational Phases of Defense, 184
TOWNE, R., Effect of the Blitzkrieg on French in Our Schools, 579
Troubles of the Modern Parent, E. S. JONES, 375
TUTTLE, H. S., Knowledge Is Powerless!, 315
Twenty Years on: Or, the Next Two Decades in Private Secondary Education, R. M. GUMMERE, 129
TYSON, L., Why Go to College Now?, 453

Undergraduates, Timely Program for, 54
UNH Reaches Its Third Quarter-Century Milestone, 52
University, of Chicago Takes an Unprecedented Step in Announcing Candidates for Honorary Degree, 72; of Oklahoma Provides for Its Latin-American Students, 119; Reform Movement in Latin America, 613
Urgent Call for Help, 56
U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the AASA to Formulate a Program, 136

VALENTINE, P. F., Voltaire Speaks Again, 443
Vermont, The Sesquicentennial of the University of, 324
Vichy Régime, New Plans for Education under the, 187
Vigorous Protest against a "General Language Course," 463
Virgin Islands, Hundred Years of Public Education in the, 88
Visual Education, Educational Uses of Motion Pictures Grows Apace, 41
Vocational, Choices of Students from Cities, Towns and Farms, E. D. SISSON, 94; American, Education Convention, 463
Voltaire, on Education, J. H. HILDEBRAND, 232; Another Comment Relative to the, Article, H. E. B. SPEIGHT, 329; Or Montaigne?, W. C. RUEDIGER, 329; Speaks Again, P. F. VALENTINE, 443; Seer or Soothsayer?, H. F. HARE, 444; Still another, Letter, A. DIABOLI, 595

WAKEHAM, G., "Education for College or for Life?", 12; "Education for Life," 47; Should College Teachers Join the AFT?, 441; Inspiration of Crisis, 619
WALTERS, R., Forecast of Collegiate Enrolment for 1941–42, 142; Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges, 1941, 539
War, American Schools in the Near and Far East Hit Hard by, 8; Methodology in the Study of Propaganda and Attitudes Relating to, R. STRANG, 334; George S. Counts on Technology as the Primary Cause of the, 347; German, Evacuation of Children, H. L. ANSBACHER, 470; Educational Institutions Adjust Themselves to the, 582
WEAVER, D. A., American Way of Life, 223; "The University of Pennsylvania To-Day," 446
Western Reserve University Merges Four Boards of Trustees, 21

What, Shall We Tell Our Children about God?, D. T. YODER, 97; Do College Students Study?, E. H. WILKINS, 196; Shall We Say about God?, L. H. DE WOLF, 279; to Tell Our Children about God, J. E. WISE, S.J., 467
"What's in a Name?", 378
WHIPPLE, G. M., Inner Working of the NSSE, 163
WHITNEY, F. L., Methods, Types or Techniques of Educational Research?, 282
Why Go to College Now?, L. TYSON, 453
WICKE, M. F., High-School-College Conferences in Northeastern Ohio, 570
WIGGAM, A. E., Do Brains and Character Go Together?, 261
WILKINS, E. H., What Do College Students Study?, 196
WISE, (S.J.), J. E., What to Tell Our Children about God, 467
WITHERS, A. M., This, Too, Will Pass, 191; The Title, "Doctor," in a Troubled World, 524
WITTY, P., Evaluation of the Nature-Nurture Controversy, 151
WIXTED, W. G., and P. R. V. CUROE, How Well Do College Seniors Write?, 505
Woman, Challenge to the College, S. P. DUKE, 425
Women and Radio, 74
WOOD, B. D., Scores on National Committee Teacher Examinations, 1940 and 1941, 625
Wooster, The 75th Anniversary of the College of, 348
Word-Education and the Word, Education, L. FOLEY, 113
Workshops, Some, of 1941, 560

Yale-Harvard Freshmen Speed-Reading Experiment, E. A. BOND, 107
YODER, D. T., What Shall We Tell Our Children about God?, 97
Youth, Provision at Miami University for the Forgotten, 102

ZEYDEL, E. H., Reply to Dr. Sisson, 473

BOOKS REVIEWED

BARTLETT, H., H. U. FAULKNER and T. KEPNER, The American Way of Life, 223 (D. A. WEAVER)
BLOS, P., The Adolescent Personality, 420 (D. SNEDDEN)
BOLTON, F. E., and J. E. CORBALLY, Educational Sociology, 420 (D. SNEDDEN)

CATTELL, P., The Measurement of Intelligence of Infants and Young Children, 475 (N. V. SCHEIDEMANN)
CATTELL, R. B., General Psychology, 526 (H. B. REED)
CORBALLY, J. E., and F. E. BOLTON, Educational Sociology, 420 (D. SNEDDEN)
CORNELL, F. G., and P. R. MORT, American Schools in Transition, 388 (M. J. BERG)

DOWLIN, C. M. (editor), The University of Pennsylvania To-day, 446 (D. A. WEAVER)

Equipment and examination forms for administering the Cattell Developmental and Intelligence Scale, 475 (N. V. SCHEIDEMANN)

FAULKNER, H. U., T. KEPNER and H. BARTLETT, The American Way of Life, 223 (D. A. WEAVER)

HARTMANN, G. W., Educational Psychology, 619 (H. B. REED)
HORN, J. L., The Education of Your Child, 92 (D. SNEDDEN)
HUSBAND, R. W., General Psychology, 526 (H. B. REED)

JOHNSON, H., The Teaching of History, 193 (E. DAWSON)
JOSEY, C. C., F. B. KNIGHT and J. TIFFIN, The Psychology of Normal People, 526 (H. B. REED)

KELLY, R. L., The American Colleges and the Social Order, 525 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
KEPNER, T., H. BARTLETT and H. U. FAULKNER, The American Way of Life, 223 (D. A. WEAVER)
KLEIN, A. J. (editor), Adventures in the Reconstruction of Education, 444 (B. H. BODE)
KNIGHT, F. B., C. C. JOSEY and J. TIFFIN, The Psychology of Normal People, 526 (H. B. REED)
KOERTH, W., H. M. STANTON and D. STARCH, Psychology and Education, 619 (H. B. REED)

LOVEJOY, C. E., So You're Going to College, 92 (D. SNEDDEN)

MORGAN, J. J. B., Psychology, 526 (H. B. REED)
MORRISON, H. C., The Curriculum of the Common School, 92 (D. SNEDDEN)
MORT, P. R., and F. G. CORNELL, American Schools in Transition, 388 (M. J. BERG)

NEUSCHUTZ, L. M., How to Help Your Hearing, 357 (C. C. CRAWFORD)
NIEMOELLER, A. F., Complete Guide for the Deafened, 357 (C. C. CRAWFORD); Handbook of Hearing Aids, 357 (C. C. CRAWFORD)

RIEMKASTEN, F., In Gottes eigenem Land, 141 (M. LEDERER)
RUCH, F. L., Psychology of Life, 526 (H. B. REED)

SCHOENCHEN, G. G., The Activity School, A Basic Philosophy for Teachers, 419 (H. H. NORNE)
SEASHORE, C. E., The Junior College Movement, 92 (D. SNEDDEN)
SORENSON, H., Psychology in Education, 619 (H. B. REED)
STANTON, H. M., W. KOERTH and D. STARCH, Psychology and Education, 619 (H. B. REED)
STRANG, R., Pupil Personnel and Guidance, 92 (D. SNEDDEN)

TIFFIN, J., F. B. KNIGHT and C. C. JOSEY, The Psychology of Normal People, 526 (H. B. REED)